Old Fort Johnson, by W. Max Reid, 1906

re Sir John Johnson's Second Raid

p. 121

After descending the Schoharie Valley on Oct 17, 1780 & reaching the Mohawk, Sir John then "detached Captain Thompson of the Rangers & Captain Brant with about 150 Rangers and Indians to destroy the settlement at Fort Hunter on the east side of Schoharie Creek, which they effected without opposition, the inhabitants having fled to the fort."

My Note: This is evidently Capt. Andrew Thompson of Butler's Rangers who was drowned in 1781.

After his being 14 months in Albany jail he effected his escape and got safe to New York where Col. Johnson promised his assistance and a passage to this Province in order to join his family which he obtained after 2 years living on the little means he had left.

On his arrival here having no means to support himself and family he was encouraged by Col. Johnson to follow him to Niagara with a few goods for his immediate use as the Kings presents could not be forwarded so expeditiously as he wanted them having sold that cargo to him he returned with a particular request from the Five Nations to meet them early this spring with Indian goods.

With this permission to transport said goods either to Carleton Island, Niagara or Detroit.

Petition of John Thompson late of Burnetfield on the Mohawk River, N.Y., but now of Niagara, Province of Quebec, Merchant.

At the beginning of the war was settled at Burnetfield and possessed of two valuable and exclusive farms lying upon the Mohawk River with Dwelling House, barn, stable and other outhouses on each farm together with several lots of land unshared, the whole valued at that time at upwards of £4000 N.Y. Cur^t. Took every occasion of rendering assistance. The Rebels set about him and in 1775 took him and carried him to Albany where he remained a prisoner without being permitted to see his family or manage his affairs for upwards of 14 months when he found means of escape to New York and then to Canada, finally arriving at Niagara and has maintained himself and family

John Thompson late Tryon Co., N.Y. Que 18 May 1880

Lived 14 years on the Mohawk River where he was possessed of a valuable tract of land with a large Farm improv'd thereupon and at the same time carried on a considerable traffic with the Six Nation & other Indians, and was employed by the late Sir Wm Johnson in supplying said Indians going & coming from him on public business with necessaries and provisions

That at the breaking out of the present Rebellion he with much resolve assisted Col^d Grey Johnson Superintendent of Indian Affairs with provisions towards assembling the Indians in the Summer of 1775 as well at the German Flats as at Ft. Stanwix, and Oswego that year. Petitioner for a considerable time after privately correspondence with Niagara and assisted such friends of Government as wanted to go to said place for their security, and in short did every thing in his power to keep open the communication between that post and the friends of Government in Co. Tryon, & in particular, Sir John Johnson being ~~now~~ at last suspected by the rebels as an enemy to their cause, he was seized upon and carried to Albany Jail where he remained 14 months a prisoner, his farm & effects were confiscated and sold at public auction and his family afterwards so harshly used by the Rebels that it cost the life of his only daughter his wife ~~and~~ son & sister-in-law were confined in Fort Mifflin at the German Flats until the action at Oriskany in 1777 when they were Released and made their escape on foot to Ft. Col. St. Leger's Camp before Fort Stanwix in the utmost distress whom they followed to this Province.
